WHICH IS BEST?

The Donaldson Committee members will have a hard time picking the "Hibiscus of the Year" from among the 11 contenders. These are the ones they will have to look over with a sharp eye.

Confetti - Single, rosy-orange, veined, lighter edges by Harry Goulding

Another Love - Double, red, by Harry Goulding

Belle Starr - Double, red, lighter edges on petals by Harry Goulding

Evening Sunset - Single, light brownish, dark windmill eye, by R. L. Trainor

John R. Wallace - Double, red, by Frank Welenc

Dr. Oscar Forel - Double, rose, dark throat, by Derek Spence of Jamaica

Beverly B - Single, rust colored, darker eye, top of stamen has petaloids, by Norman Brubaker

Sam Teague - Double, yellow (light), lighter in the throat, by Norman Brubaker

Splashdown - Single, red with yellowish and white splotches, by Joan Lyons

Walk Easy - Single peach colored, veined and speckled with yellowish eye, by Joan Lyons

Colorama - Single, orange-red with yellow edges, darker eye with halo, by Harry Goulding

These descriptions were made from color photos and memory, so are probably not too correct as to true color. At least you can get an idea as to what the poor committeemen are up against.
